

Photography Contest of the Institut français de Jérusalem – antenne Romain Gary Itinerary from Paris to Jerusalem, 6th edition – Art in the city

Contest: 18 October - 01 December 2017

Exhibition: January - February 2018

Rules of the contest

Article 1 – Organisation and dates of the Contest

The Institut français de Jérusalem – antenne Romain Gary, sited 9 kikar Safra - 91009 Jerusalem, called below “the Organiser”, organises a photography contest free to enter and devoid of any obligation to purchase: Art in the city, from 18 October 2017 to 01 December 2017.

The following rules dictate the legal framework applicable to this contest.

Article 2 – Participants

Participants must be permanent residents of Jerusalem, Israel or the Palestinian Territories and must be able to prove it on demand of the Organiser.

One single submission per person is accepted throughout the whole duration of the contest (same postal or e-mail address, same last and first name, same identification document).

Employees and representatives of the body responsible for its organisation are not allowed to enter the contest, nor are the partners, the members of the jury and, in general terms, any individual having taken part in the organisation or creation of the contest.

To enter the contest, any person under eighteen (18) years old must beforehand obtain the autorisation of a legal guardian. The Organiser will have the right to ask any under-aged participant for proof of such autorisation as well as, if necessary, disqualify any participant unable to present such autorisation.

To enter the Contest within the Professionals category, participants will have to send along with their pictures:

- an identification document, currently valid, proving their status (student card, professional card, tax form...).

No document is necessary to enter the contest within the Amateur photographers category.

Article 3 – Conditions of entry

Participation in this contest is free.

Participants from the Amateur photographers category must send one single photograph (in colour or in black and white) between 18 October 2017 and 01 December 2017 to the following e-mail address: ifjromaingary@gmail.com.

This photograph will automatically be published on the facebook page of the Institut français de Jérusalem – antenne Romain Gary (<https://www.facebook.com/IFJGary>), in an album containing all the pictures received for the occasion of the contest, so that the public can vote to determine the winner of the “facebook Prize”.

A confirmation e-mail will subsequently be sent to the participant to inform them that their entry has been approved.

Participants from the Professionals category must send a series of three (3) to five (5) photographs (in colour or black and white) between 18 October 2017 and 01 December 2017 to the following e-mail address: ifjromaingary@gmail.com. Will be sent, attached to this e-mail, the required documents (article 2).

They must pick which picture to present for the "facebook Prize". This photograph will automatically be published on the facebook page of the Institut français de Jérusalem – Romain Gary (<https://www.facebook.com/IFJGary>), in an album dedicated to the contest so that the public can vote to determine the two winners of the "facebook Prize" (article 5).

A confirmation e-mail will subsequently be sent to the participant to inform them that their entry has been approved.

The body of the e-mail to which the pictures will be attached must contain the following information:

For the Amateur photographers category:

Last name; First name; Category of entry; Age; E-mail address; Phone number; Full postal address.

Title of the photograph; Title of the photograph in English (if the original title is in another language);

Place the picture was taken (city, country).

I certify that I am the author of this photograph and that I am the only owner of all the copyrights attached to it, including the appearance authorization and the release and publishing rights of the people and places that appear in it. I certify I read the rules of the contest.

For the Professionals category:

Last name; First name; Category of entry; Age; E-mail address; Phone number; Full postal address.

Reference of the picture to be posted on facebook.

For each photograph: Name of the file of the picture; Title of the picture; Title of the picture in English (if the original title is in another language); Place the picture was taken (city, country). It is possible to name only your series, as a whole, and not each picture that composes it. In that case, the details to give are: Title of the series; Title of the series in English (if the original title is in another language); Place the picture was taken (city, country).

I certify that I am the author of these photographs and that I am the only owner of all the copyrights attached to them, including the appearance authorization and the release and publishing rights of the people and places that appear in it. I certify I read the rules of the contest.

The photographs must be digital, saved in JPEG format and weigh three (3) megabytes (MB) minimum and fifteen (15) megaBytes (MB) maximum.

The name of the file must indicate the surname and first name of the contestant in latin characters as follows: lastname_firstname.

Contestants of the Professionals category must number their files in the following fashion: lastname_firstname01, lastname_firstname02,...

Film photographs will be digitized into JPEG format by the author.

Any contestant who does not comply with the rules regarding the number and format of pictures sent will be disqualified. Any incomplete or inaccurate entry will be rejected. Participants agree that the Institut français de Jérusalem – antenne Romain Gary cannot be held responsible in the occurrence of such an event.

Any inaccurate information given by the winner, particularly their contact information, will be considered null and void and will not be taken into consideration.

Article 4 – Copyright

The participant agrees that they own all the intellectual property rights attached to each element featured in their work and that they are the only author of the photograph. In order to do so, they will type in the body of their e-mail: “I certify that I am the author of this (these) photograph(s) and that I am the only owner of all the copyrights attached to it (them), including the appearance authorisation and the release and publishing rights of the people and places that appear in it. I certify I read the rules of the contest.”

In no case can the Organiser be held responsible for a copyright infringement committed by the participant.

Each participant who declares to be the author of the photographs they send recognizes and accepts that, by entering them in the competition, they allow the Institut français de Jérusalem – antenne Romain Gary to use those photographs without remunerating them in any way for a total duration of three years from the closure of the Contest, that is to say until 01 December 2020, in the following contexts: exhibitions, web sites, social networks, flyers and other printed means of communication and promotions already existing or yet to be created.

For any use in such contexts, the identity of the author of the photographs will be mentioned on the photographs or in the disclaimer. The participants will decide on the form they want this mention to adopt (last name, first name, pseudonym, etc...).

Article 5 – Winner selection and prize awarding

The jury, composed of professionals, will appoint three (3) winners in the Professionals category and four (4) winners in the Amateur photographers category and will select between thirteen (13) and nineteen (19) photographs to be exhibited in the Institut français de Jérusalem – antenne Romain Gary. The winners selection will be made by the latest on 31 December 2017 and will be based on the following criteria:

- relevance of the picture considering the topic of the Contest;
- quality of the picture: framing, originality, lighting, aesthetics...

A special prize will be given to each one of the two « facebook Prize » winner, that is to say to the authors of the two photographs counting the most “Likes” on the facebook page of the Institut français de Jérusalem – antenne Romain Gary (<https://www.facebook.com/IFJGary>) by the end of the voting period, Wednesday 13 December 2017 at 2 p.m. local time. In case of a draw, the jury will decide between the contestants and determine the winner.

The winners will be informed of their victory by e-mail. The decisions of the jury will be without appeal. The results may be publicly released on printed or online means of communication.

The Organiser guarantees to the participants the impartiality, fairness, good faith, honesty and loyalty of the jury members.

In compliance with customs, the jury will be able to rule out any photograph they deem not artistically relevant.

If the contact information given by the participant prevents them from being informed of their win and prize, they will forfeit their title of winner and no complaints will be accepted.

No complaints will be accepted regarding the prize, nor can it be exchanged against its worth in money or any other form, nor can it be exchanged for any reason.

In the case where the winner would not be able to receive, wholly or partially, their prize, for any reason, they will lose the prize, without any compensation. The jury will then decide on a new winner selection from among the participants.
